

Online Resources

CAPTITAL AREA DISTRICT LIBRARY (CADL) CATALOG

Find out what's available at your town library -- and if it's not there, they can get it for you from one of the other CADL branches.

<http://opac.cadl.org>

MEL (Michigan eLibrary)

A wealth of resources and links are found here on a wide variety of topics. Check it out!

<http://www.mel.org/SPT--BrowseResourcesNewMeL.php>

REMC Online Resources

Here's a great place to start your research! InfoTrac, ECultureGrams, eLibrary, Elementary, eLibrary Curriculum, eLibrary Science, Learning Links, SIRS Discoverer, SIRS Researcher, and Web/MAX (for staff) are some of the databases found here. Click on "Log in to REMC Online Resources". You may access these resources from school and home.

http://remc13.org/online_resources.html

LIBRARYSPOT

This site has encyclopedias, maps, newspapers, online libraries, quotations, dictionaries, and more -- much, much more. This one bears checking out. You'll be surprised at all that's here!

<http://www.libraryspot.com>

OCCUPATIONAL OUTLOOK HANDBOOK

Need career information? This is a great resource for that!

<http://www.bls.gov/oco/>

NETLIBRARY

This is a collection of approximately 10,000 eBooks (electronic books, primarily nonfiction) that the Library of Michigan has purchased from netLibrary. If you want to do more than browse the collection, you must register and create your own ID and password. Once you have done this, you may access netLibrary from computers outside of the library media center.

<http://www.netlibrary.com>

CIA WORLD FACT BOOK

For up-to-date information about countries, check this out. There is also a link to the CIA homepage.

<http://www.cia.gov/cia/publications/factbook/index.html>

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

More information about countries found here.

<http://www.state.gov>

BOOKBROWSE

If you're a book lover, nothing beats spending time in a bookstore or library. This Web site might be the next best thing. If you want to read excerpts from a variety of new books, as well as their reviews, or read book jacket blurbs and author biographies and interviews, this is the website to visit!

<http://www.bookbrowse.com>

INTERNET PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Internet Public Library (IPL), is a public service organization and learning/teaching environment at the University of Michigan School of Information. It features a convenient service called Ask A Question. The IPL has an online volunteer staff dedicated to answering reference questions for visitors of the IPL.

<http://www.ipl.org/>

ASK A LIBRARIAN...

a question. Tap into the human resources at the largest library in the world, the Library of Congress. You'll find some great online resources here, too, like historical documents.

<http://www.loc.gov/rr/askalib/>