Financial Report

Superintendent Smith shared no financial report this month due to the ISD Business Office ongoing audit.

Principals' Reports:

Elementary:

Mr. Jason Kubiak reported:

- Registration went well with a good turnout. Several walk-in new student enrollments. Open House taking place next Thursday with staff introductions in the gym.
- Shared current numbers by grade level. A combination class is possible due to new inquiries.
- 35m Grant information presented. Science of Reading initiative for early literacy instruction discussed. Grant funds available to purchase evidence-based curriculum. Our current Bookworms curriculum is not on approved list, will need to note this on our transparency page. Utilizing UFLI as a supplemental in our K-2 classrooms as a pilot. Next steps are meeting as a curriculum team to review potential curriculum options. ISD is developing plan as many districts are not using an approved program. UFLI is on approved list and elementary is using it at K-2 level.

Secondary:

Mr. Herbert reported:

- Move In/Move Out report presented.
- Staffing updates presented, including hire of Secondary Office Manager, HS ELA Teacher. Shared Posting position for Choir/Drama sponsor for after school club, hoping for potential concerts.
- Student Handbook revisions presented. Reviewed late work policy, proposed revisions document. Restructuring of the current Handbook for improved flow and clarity.

-Presentation from The Lockout Company on security devices and systems used in some districts.

Special Education Report:

Ms. Becky Goodman presented:

-New IEP needs. Student placement finalized and registered. Special Education transportation changes. Compliance report, director's meeting today. MAASE Conference upcoming, Becky will be attending. Paraprofessional training taking place online and in person. Staffing updates reviewed.

Superintendent's Report:

Mr. Smith reported:

-Non-renewed grant positions reviewed. Unable to use Sped funds, reviewed 31A funds again and options for using those funds.

-Missing iPads are being located, ISD will assist with tracking.

-Transportation from WTC to Webberville discussed. Ride sharing, arrival times, transportation with other district options discussed. Option to have students leave WTC earlier presented.

-Negotiations with WEA ongoing. WEA requesting some language changes and pay increase options.

-Some July 1 contracts will be presented to the Board for approval due to slight changes.

-Additional rate increases still pending.
